6. Events

A. Events and Acceptance of Terms.

As used below, the term "prod^x Event" means an event, gathering, promotion, contest, meet-up or the like that is organized or hosted by prod^x. A "Non-prod^x Event" means an event, gathering, promotion, contest, meet-up or the like that is organized or hosted by someone other than prod^x, but that may appear or be listed on our Services. In order to participate or attend a prod^x Event you must agree to the terms in this Section 6. If you find that you cannot or will not agree to such terms, please do not RSVP to or attend any prod^x Event. If you RSVP to any prod^x Event or Non-prod^x Event through our Services, you signal that you have read, understand and agree to these event terms.

B. Assumption of risk/release of liability/indemnity

Although we try to create a safe environment at prod^x Events, accidents happen. We ask that you do your part to help limit the possibility that you might get injured at a prod^x Event. You agree to carefully consider the inherent risks in any activities that you choose to take part in and to take reasonable precautions before you choose to attend or participate at a prod^x Event. For example, you should ensure that you are in good physical health before engaging in any physical activity at a prod^x Event, and you should always drink responsibly given the risks associated with drunk driving and participating in activities while your judgment is impaired. Second, please note that some of the other prod^x Event guests may be less responsible than you, and may themselves create additional risks to you despite their best intentions. In summary, you understand that your attendance and participation at prod^x Events is voluntary, and you agree to assume responsibility for any resulting injuries to the fullest extent permitted under applicable law. By the same token, you agree that prod^x is not responsible for any injuries you might sustain at Non-prod^x Events listed on our Services.

You (for yourself, your heirs, personal representatives, or assigns, and anyone else who might make a claim on your behalf) hereby release, waive, discharge and covenant not to sue, prod^x and its respective parent companies, subsidiaries, affiliates, officers, directors, partners, shareholders, members, agents, employees, vendors, sponsors and volunteers from any and all claims, demands, causes of action, damages, losses or expenses (including court costs and reasonable attorneys' fees) which may arise out of, result from, or relate in any way to your attendance at any prod^x Event or Non-prod^x Event, except for any gross negligence or willful misconduct on our part.

You further agree to indemnify and hold prod^x, its parents, subsidiaries, affiliates, officers, directors, employees, agents and representatives harmless, including costs, liabilities and legal fees, from any claim or demand made by any third party due to, related to, or connected with your attendance or conduct at any prod^x Event or Non-prod^x Event.

prod^x and its sponsors and vendors sometimes take photos and videos at prod^x Events, and later use them for promotional purposes. By participating or attending any prod^x Event, you agree that you may appear in some of these photos and videos, and you authorize their use in this fashion. In addition, if you take any photos or videos of attendees at a prod^x Event and provide them to us, you authorize us to use them in the same fashion, and represent that the attendees that appear in your photos and videos have consented to such use. We do not control Non-prod^x Events or the people that organize them. It is possible that organizers or attendees of Non-prod^x Events will take photos or shoot videos in which you appear and then post them online (including, possibly, on our Services). By RSVP'ing to a Non-prod^x event through our Services, you authorize prod^x's use of such media for promotion purposes.

D. Termination.

While we hope not to, we may prohibit your attendance at any prod^x Event at any time if you fail to abide by the Terms, including this Section 6, or for any or no reason, without notice or liability of any kind. We reserve the right to cancel any prod^x Event at any time, for any reason, and without liability or prejudice.

E. Unofficial Events

From time to time, members of the prod^x community organize their own meet-ups and events. Although prod^x representatives sometimes join in the fun, such events are Non-prod^x Events and are not sponsored or endorsed by prod^x, even when promoted through our Services. All terms and conditions related to Non-prod^x Events apply equally to such events. If you organize such an event, you agree not to create the impression that it is sponsored or endorsed by prod^x. You agree that you will not represent yourself as an employee, representative, or agent of prod^x (unless, of course, you are actually employed by prod^x, in which case these Terms will govern your participation in any prod^x Event to the extent such Terms are not inconsistent with prod^x's standard employment agreements or policies).

 - 9) A statement that you consent either to the jurisdiction of (a) the Federal District Court for the judicial district in which your address is located if you live in the United States, or (b) any judicial district in which prod^x is located if you live outside the United States. Please also include a statement that you will accept service of process from the person who sent the original infringement notice to prod^x, or an agent of such person;
 - 10) Your physical or electronic signature, together with your contact information (address, telephone number and, if available, email address).

- 11) We will respond to all such notices and comply with applicable law. We reserve the right to remove content alleged to be infringing without prior notice and at our sole discretion. We also reserve the right to terminate a user's account if the user is determined to be a repeat infringer.

We also may obtain information from those in the prod* network such as our event organizers, contractors, and local representatives who have agreed to a relationship with us in order to deliver our Services. Cookies and Similar Technologies

What are cookies?

We may collect information using “cookies.” Cookies are small data files stored on the hard drive of your computer or mobile device by a website. We may use both session cookies (which expire once you close your web browser) and persistent cookies (which stay on your computer or mobile device until you delete them) to provide you with a more personal and interactive experience on our Site.

We use two broad categories of cookies: (1) first party cookies, served directly by us to your computer or mobile device, which we use to recognize your computer or mobile device when it revisits our Site; and (2) third party cookies, which are served by service providers on our Site, and can be used by such service providers to recognize your computer or mobile device when it visits other websites.

Cookies we use

Our Site uses the following types of cookies for the purposes set out below:

Essential Cookies

These cookies are essential to provide you with services available through our Site and to enable you to use some of its features. Without these cookies, the services that you have asked for cannot be provided, and we only use these cookies to provide you with those services.

Analytics and Performance Cookies

These cookies are used to collect information about traffic to our Site and how users use our Site. The information gathered may include the number of visitors to our Site, the websites that referred them to our Site, the pages they visited on our Site, what time of day they visited our Site, whether they have visited our Site before, and other similar information. We use this information to help operate our Site more efficiently, to gather broad demographic information and to monitor the level of activity on our Site.

We use Google Analytics for this purpose. Google Analytics uses its own cookies. It is only used to improve how our Site works. You can find out more information about Google Analytics cookies here and about how Google protects your data here. You can prevent the use of Google Analytics relating to your use of our Site by downloading and installing the browser plugin available here.

Disabling cookies

You can typically remove or reject cookies via your browser settings. In order to do this, follow the instructions provided by your browser (usually located within the "settings," "help" "tools" or "edit" facility). Many browsers are set to accept cookies until you change your settings.

Further information about cookies, including how to see what cookies have been set on your computer or mobile device and how to manage and delete them, visit www.allaboutcookies.org.

If you do not accept our cookies, you may experience some inconvenience in your use of our Site. For example, we may not be able to recognize your computer or mobile device and you may need to log in every time you visit our Site.

Pixel tags

We may also use pixel tags (which are also known as web beacons and clear GIFs) on our Site to track the actions of users on our Site. Unlike cookies, which are stored on the hard drive of your computer or mobile device by a website, pixel tags are embedded invisibly on webpages. Pixel tags measure the success of our marketing campaigns and compile statistics about usage of the Site, so that we can manage our content more effectively. The information we collect using pixel tags is not linked to our users' personal information.

Do Not Track Signals

Some Internet browsers may be configured to send "Do Not Track" signals to the online services that you visit. We currently do not respond to do not track signals. To find out more about "Do Not Track," please visit <http://www.allaboutdnt.com>.
